Dating back to the 1940's, the location at the corner of Maple Ave and Easton Road in Horsham, across from the Willow Grove Air Base, has been a popular local and commuter diner destination. It is still identified by many who were in the military or long standing members of the community as Dutch's Diner. A small family-run diner was at this location until the 1970's.

At that time, the Rutherford family sold to relatives of the current owner. It was known as Horsham Towne Diner until 1991 when the name changed to Lancers Diner.

In Horsham, Lancers Diner has become a true dining destination. Peter, the owner, truly believes that Lancers would not be what it is today without all the contributions of past owners and employees. All who come through the door of Lancers Diner will experience home-cooked soups, salad bar with unique and healthy options, entrées and desserts.

IT IS OUR MISSION TO PROVIDE OUR CUSTOMERS A TRULY SATISFYING DINING EXPERIENCE.
YOUR SATISFACTION IS OUR GOAL.
